

YELLOW BOY 1 WEEK NOOK & SUKA 2018

This little boy is really a fighter. He had to struggle when first born and has really come a long way. He was the most relaxed and comfortable on the flip test and was totally relaxed by 10 sec. Tail, legs and head all hanging limp. At one week he was 15.1 oz. That was double his birth weight. I really like the strength of this boy.
